- exam time
- results and post-results

This policy identifies roles and responsibilities of centre staff within this cycle.

Planning: roles and responsibilities

Separate invigilation within the centre

SENDCos must note that candidates are only entitled to the above arrangement if they are disabled within the meaning of the Equality Act (2010). The candidate is at a substantial disadvantage when compared with other non-disabled candidates undertaking the assessment and it would be reasonable in all the circumstances to provide the arrangement. (The only exception to this would be a temporary illness, a temporary injury or other temporary indisposition which is clearly evidenced).

Where a candidate's difficulties are established within the centre and known to the SENDCo or the SMT responsible for pastoral needs, a separate room and invigilator should be provided. Separate invigilation reflects the candidate's normal way of working in internal school tests and mock examinations as a consequence of a long term medical condition or long term social, mental or emotional needs.

The SENDCo will inform the EO, who in turn, will request a room from the timetabling dept.
